My dear Friends,

I shall be away on the Sunday, July 4th. Canon Joscelyne will celebrate at 8-0 and preach at 11-0. Mr. Murray Rumsey will take Evensong and preach.

I hope the Children's Festival on Sunday, July 25th, will evoke much thought and prayer on the subject of child welfare. There will be a full attendance of children and teachers at 11-0 and 6-30. Special hymns will be sung. The preacher at 11-0 will be the Vicar of Woodhouse Eaves, and, for a change, I propose to be with you at Evensong. Of course the day will begin with a celebration of Holy Communion at 8-0, when the presence of elder children and parents and teachers will be very welcome. I think the disappearance of our children from Church and Sunday School at an increasingly early age should concern us all very deeply. Many parishes are bringing Youth Fellowships into being as a way of meeting our grave responsibility in this matter. If someone should arise who might be our right hand in such an undertaking I should feel that definite action of this kind should be taken.

Our Summer treats for the Sunday School children have taken place rather earlier than usual. Mr. G. Horspool took great pains with the outing to Skegness on the 12th, of which I have asked him to write an account below. We are much indebted to him and his staff for giving the whole day to a very happy outing. The infants, under the care of Miss Bradley and the infants' teachers, and a very happy time on the Vicarage lawn on the previous Saturday. The choir boys' outing will be the next to consider. If two of the boys come round to persuade you give something to it, I feel sure you will meet them in the usual kindly fashion.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Children's Outing.—The Summer treat for the senior children of the Sunday Schools this year took the form of an outing to Skegness on June 12th. Starting from Barrow station at 10-45 a.m. we arrived at Skegness at 2-0 p.m. Our party consisted of 85 children, 8 teachers, and 55 parents and friends. Some of the children spent the afternoon either paddling or bathing, while others visited the Amusement Park. At 4-30 p.m. we assembled in the Town Gardens and a good tea was served in the Pavilion. The afternoon was fine but dull. The evening, however, proved bright and sunny. After visits to the gardens, boating lake and waterway, we all reassembled at the station for the return journey and arrived home at 11-0 p.m., tired but quite happy.

G.R.H.

G.F.S.—We are very glad to hear how much the Doll's Bedstead given to the Children's Convalescent Home is appreciated. Miss Quilter, the Matron, writes "It has given the greatest pleasure and I want you to convey our very grateful thanks to the members who so kindly presented it to the Home."

A "Bring and Buy" Sale for the funds took place in the Vicarage garden in fine weather on June 25th. The committee worked hard and there was a nice sprinkling of people.

Mothers' Union.—On Tuesday, June 22nd, 14 members went by train to Oxford. It was a fine day and we all enjoyed the long walk by the river and seeing the Cathedral and Christ Church College. Everyone was very interested in the Dining Hall and the old fashioned kitchen and ovens. After tea those who were not too tired went to Magdalen and New College, returning to Leicester at 8-37 and to Quorn by Allen's bus after a most enjoyable day.

My dear Friends,

Some of you will be having holidays this month. I hope they will be happy and refreshing. They will soon be over. The joy of anticipation soon passes into the joy of remembrance. This latter is not the highest kind of Christian joy for it is the future that holds for the Christian the summum bonum. But all the joys of the past should be remembered and cherished. They may still throw their light upon the present, for

"In its strength through after days
We travel our appointed ways
Till all the lowly vale grows bright
Transfigured in remembered light."

Our Patron Saint as you know claims our salute during this month. August the 24th is his day, and the Sunday following calls us together for prayer and thanksgiving. It is a local homely festival. For once we do not attempt to look beyond the limits of our parish and church. May our prayers and thanksgivings at the time be rich in blessing.

We are looking forward to welcoming the Oddfellows at Mattins on the 29th.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Dedications.—Two Prayer Books for the Prayer desks, given by relatives, in memory of Mary Nurse, were dedicated on Sunday, July 18th, at 8-0 a.m. An Altar book is being added. For these gifts we are most grateful.

Admissions.—Having been elected to the Bell Ringers Guild, Peter Rumsey and Harold Adkins were admitted to the office on Sunday, July 18th, at 11-0 a.m.

Congratulations.—The marriage of Charles Henry Northcote Toller and Jane Mary Dunbar took place at St. Augustine's Church, Queen's Gate, on Thursday, July 22nd, at 2-30. Many friends from the village and neighbourhood were present and many others will join in these congratulations and good wishes.

Sunday Schools.—There will be no morning school in August. There will be Children's Services every Sunday afternoon, except on August 1st.

Outings in August.—Arrangements are being made to take the choir boys to Hunstanton by bus on Tuesday, August 17th. Others who wish to join the outing will be welcome. Will they please give their names to the Vicar as soon as possible.

A half-day excursion to Southwell Cathedral is being arranged for Saturday, August 28th. Names for this should be given to Miss Bradley.

Aug. 24 St. Bartholomew: Holy Communion 8-30 a.m.

On Sunday, August 15th, the collections throughout the day will be given to the Universities' Mission to Central Africa. In the reports from all the Dioceses in that Mission there is advance and growth. But at home 1936 was a disappointing year financially.

On August 4th there will be the Women's Home Mission Sale of Work at Beaumanor. The proceeds go to Additional Curates Society which this year keeps the centenary of its foundation. Without the help which it gives in providing stipends for curates in large poor parishes the church's work would be sorely crippled.

The members of the Mothers' Union had a delightful outing with the Nanpantan branch of the Union. They drove through some of the lovely Derbyshire scenery and all enjoyed it. Their joint meetings are most useful in promoting friendly relations with one another.

My dear Friends,

We have had some welcome changes in the pulpit during the month. Twice I have exchanged with the Rev. C. B. G. Watson. I know that his ministry here has been very acceptable and I have enjoyed my two visits to Loughborough Parish Church.

My brother, who is on furlough from South Africa, spoke to us twice on Sunday, the 15th. His two themes, as I recall them, presented two cogent but very dissimilar arguments for missionary work. What he told us of the fears to which the primitive African is a victim showed how much Africa needs to learn of the "Love which casteth out fear." And his account of the same African's ready response to the opportunities of Christian worship showed what a contribution of its own Africa has to offer to the Church. For Africa's sake then and for the Church's sake may the work prosper! Before he returns Father Rumsey will show a film of life at St. Cuthbert's, Tsolo, in the Church Room. The date will be October 28th, at 7-30. Please book it.

We have recently laid to rest another old friend. When I came to Quorn William Moore had already been a sidesman for some years and I appointed him my warden in the year 1914 in succession to Wm. Thornton. He held the office for five years, and though gradually growing infirmity and deafness removed him subsequently from the counsels of the Church he remained a loyal and consistent worshipper with us. He and his wife were hard hit by the war, losing no less than three of their four sons. But I never had reason to believe that their faith was shaken by so great a sorrow. Indeed, it is worth recalling that his time as churchwarden covered the whole duration of the war. His life's work according to human judgment seemed to be over some time before he passed away on August 9th at the age of 83. May he have ever-increasing light and peace!

The coming Sundays have some important events connected with them, to which reference is made in the notes below.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

the Loughborough Hospital and the Leicester Royal Infirmary.

Altar Flowers.—Sept. 5th, Mrs. Faire; Sept. 12th, Miss Callis; Sept. 19th, Miss Martin; Sept. 26th, Mrs. Fewkes; Oct. 3rd, Miss Bradley.

August Outings.—The choir boys met with a generous response to their annual appeal, with the result that a very happy day was spent at Hunstanton on August 15th. The party, made up to 45 in all, travelled by Allens' bus and taxi, leaving the Vicarage shortly after 7-0. The undulations of Rutland, the long flat stretches towards Wisbech, the heather and pines of Norfolk around Sandringham, make this a drive of delightful variety. The early peep into Peterborough Cathedral which it affords is another of its pleasures. Now there is no interior scaffolding how wonderfully satisfying is this great Norman Church, from west to east, quiet and strong and beautiful! The weather was very kind with just the right amount of sun and breeze and tea in the Kit Cat instead of the burnt-down St. Edmund's Café was sumptuously served. The outing was voted one of the best, and the boys, whose expenses and pocket money were well covered by the sum collected, thanks their good friends.

On Saturday, August 28th, a party of 45 paid a visit to Southwell Minster, travelling by the Fosse and Gunthorpe Bridge and home via Newark. Southwell was fairly familiar to more than one of the party, for at one time and another there have been similar outings. To have been to Southwell, indeed to many or the Cathedral, is a very good reason for going again. The subdued Autumn sun of Saturday last was suitable to the yellowish stone of the Norman Nave (or must we say Romanesque?) and sent beautiful south-easterly shafts of light among the lancet windows of the chancel. Some day perhaps the extinguishers on the western towers will be removed. After tea at the Reindeer most of us paid a second visit before moving on to Newark, where the Parish Church and Castle were seen by most—and so home.

Sunday Schools.—Morning Sunday School will re-open on Sunday, Sept. 5th, when we hope to see a full attendance. There will be no afternoon service in Church on that day owing to the Legion service.

Churchyard.—The improvement fund secretary is Miss J. Bolesworth, 89, Loughborough Road. She will be glad to receive the annual subscriptions of old and new subscribers.

Churchyard Auxiliary Fund.

The Treasurers will be glad if subscribers to the above will kindly forward their subscriptions to Miss J. Bolesworth, who is now acting as Secretary.

CHURCH YARD EXTENSION.

The Building of the wall in Love-lane and other work necessary to prepare the extension for burial have involved us in an expenditure of £25 over and above the amount that stood to our credit in the old Churchyard Extension Fund. We should be grateful to receive this amount in donations so that we may not have to draw upon our current Church Expenses Account. We appeal to all those who desired that this extension should be carried out and that in preference to a Public Cemetery the Churchyard should continue to be the village burying place. Any of the undersigned will gratefully receive donations.

H. H. RUMSEY, Vicar,
W. S. N. TOLLER, } Churchwardens.
W. BRANFORD, }
J. MARTIN, Secretary P.C.C.

My dear Friends,

You will I feel sure wish me to express to the Rev. E. E. and Mrs. Attwood the feeling—which indeed runs through the whole village—of sympathy with them in their sorrow. The loss of their only child, a son of such promise, and in the prime of early manhood, is a blow of a kind that does not fall to many. But they are facing it with the courage and hope that are born of faith in God and with the assurance that many prayers are helping them. May these things continue to be their strength and stay!

To pass from this thought to ask you to remember my eldest son at his coming ordination is to remind me of my own reasons for thankfulness. Stephen is to be ordained and to begin his ministry at St. Peter's, Leicester, just a little more than 16 years after his mother's passing and I do not forget God's mercies during the intervening years. I have mentioned the particulars below and will only add that he will be glad to know that you are asking for God's blessing on him. If you would come to the 8 o'clock Communion Service on Sunday, October 10th, with this in mind we should feel greatly strengthened.

One more personal note I must add. Mr. D. C. W. Nurse is leaving the parish to take a poultry farm in Norfolk and therefore is laying down his work as sacristan, which he has done for some years past. This will be a great loss to me personally as well as to the parish, for Don and his father have looked after the altar with complete devotion. It is a great thing for a Priest to know that everything at the altar will be in readiness and this has been unflinching the case for all these years.

We thank them and wish them every happiness in their future home.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Open-air Services.

The British Legion had a beautiful afternoon for the Dedication of their Standard on September 5th. The standard, which was presented by Mrs. Beardmore, in memory of her son, Harold, so well remembered by us, was committed to the keeping of the Church.

The open-air "Wakes" service on the following Sunday was, unfortunately, abandoned owing to rain.

Altar Flowers.—Oct. 3rd, Miss Bradley; 10th, Miss Burrows; 17th, Miss D. Rumsey; 24th, Mr. and Mrs. Martin; 31st, Miss Bolesworth; Nov. 7th, Miss Hickling.

G.F.S.—The first meeting was held on Wednesday, Sept. 15th, a service in Church taking place first. The meetings will be held fortnightly from that date. A Rummage Sale was held on Friday, the 24th, which realised £6. The Matron of the Leicester Royal Infirmary has acknowledged the doll's bed. "It will give," she says, "great pleasure to the small patients, and I shall be grateful if you will thank the members on my behalf for such a lovely gift."

We very much regret the resignation of Mrs. Toller from the presidency, and thank her for all that she has done for the society during her years of office.

Church Room.—The programme for the winter will very shortly be published. Mr. J. Field, 43, Barrow-road, is the secretary. The first of the social events has already taken place very happily.

Bible Class.—A class for lads (14 and over) will be commenced in the School on Sunday, Oct. 24th, at 10-0. The Vicar has asked Mr. F. Prevost to take this class. He has consented, and will be very glad to welcome a large number of lads on the 24th.

My dear Friends,

I expect you noticed, on a recent Sunday, the changed appearance of the altar. I had removed the wing curtains and draped the revedos and side stone panelling. It was very roughly and temporarily done with such hangings as we possess. My object was to give an impression of what might be done with suitable hangings. My own conclusion was that in this way we could add beauty and dignity to the sanctuary.

We have said "Good-bye" to two old friends during the past month. Mary Ann White passed away on Tuesday, the 19th, and was laid to rest on the following Friday. She was 78 years of age, and a few remember her from childhood. She was one of the mothers to whom the war brought great sorrow, for two of her three boys were killed, Frank and Charlie, who was our organist in those days. As time went on she recovered her cheerfulness, and her last years were mellowed with a sweetness that was her natural disposition. The passing of Catherine Farnham, too, also in her 79th year, severs many a link with the past. In the '80s few women were better known and loved in the parish and district. Four years ago she returned to the home and scenes of her early married life. So far as age and health permitted, she renewed many friendships, especially of those who had grown old with her, resumed a lively interest in Quorn and Quorn people, and exercised once again her gift of open-handed friendliness. Her ashes, after cremation on the previous day, were placed in the family vault at the east end of the Farnham Chapel, at the funeral service which took place on October 28th. The girls of the G.F.S., at their dance on the previous evening, paused for a moment to remember their foundress.

My brother, who is returning to his South African parish on November 12th, showed his film of the mission both afternoon and evening on October 28th. The staff and children of the elementary school came at 2-0, and there was a crowded general meeting in the evening. The film gave us, amongst other things, a delightful glimpse of the school life and craft-training of both African and coloured children. It was a lesson for us to see something in movement, of the abilities and teachableness of "backward" peoples. As a result we are able to visualise a happy Christian community in the "dark" continent.

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

The Archdeacon's Visitation.—The following notes were made by Archdeacon Hurrell as a result of his visit to the church on Oct. 20th. The church continues to be kept in excellent order. My dear Friends,

I wish you all a happy Christmas and hope to meet you at the Altar on Christmas morning. By way of preparation for that there will be a short service in Church on the previous Tuesday at 7-30. Opportunities for Christmas Communion will be provided on Christmas Day at 7-30 and 9-30, and on the following day (Sunday) at 12-0.

A Confirmation for Quorn and other candidates will be held at Barrow-on-Soar on Thursday, March 3rd. Classes of preparation must begin very early in the New Year. I shall be glad if those whom this notice concerns will begin to give the matter of Confirmation their serious attention.

A trusted worker will leave us when Mr. George Horspool and his family remove to Loughborough. Except for the period of the war I have never known the Sunday Schools without him, either as scholar, teacher or superintendent of the upper school, which last post he now vacates after holding it for 17 years. I might speak of the personal loss which his going means to me, for I have leaned on him for so long. But the gratitude due to him from parents and parish is more to the point. His business and home life have made such increasing demands on him of recent years that he might well have claimed the day of rest as his own. But he has never done so. In the Belfry, too, as well as the Sunday Schools, he has been a stalwart chief, never content with anything less than being a student of the subject in hand. Big gaps at times are left in our ranks. Here is a very big one. Well done George and thank you!

I look back with great pleasure to the British Legion service held in the afternoon of Sunday, November 14th. There are occasions when the church is hardly big enough. This was one of them, for some stood in the porch throughout. I have no word but "thrilling" for the singing of the Easter hymn, "The strife is o'er." But the abiding impression is a puzzled one. What masses of English people to-day are and remain on the brink of a fuller fellowship with our Lord and His Church!

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

Sunday Schools.—Reference has been made above to Mr. G. Horspool's impending resignation of the superintendentship of the upper school. At a meeting of teachers it was decided to hold a Christmas Tree Party on Saturday, January 1st. If any kind friend should offer gifts of presents or crackers we should be grateful. There will be no morning Sunday School on December 26th and January 2nd, but there will be afternoon carol services on both those days.

Churchyard.—The turfing of the borders on either side of the main pathway is a great improvement. This will be still more evident when the turf has settled and grass has grown beyond. Little feet, and sometimes big one, hinder this process, so we would ask them to keep to the paths. May we ask, too, that all dead flowers, etc. should be taken either to the basket at the west end of the Church or to the pit.

Churchyard Extension.—In the October Magazine an appeal was made for donations towards the sum of £25 that was required to complete the work of preparing the Extension, over and above the amount that stood to the credit of the old Churchyard Extension Fund. The appeal was addressed especially to those who desired that the Churchyard be extended in preference to the provision of a public cemetery. So far the result of the appeal is as follows:—Previously acknowledged, £7 0s. 6d.; also Mr. A. Pell, 5s.; Mr. Cotton, 5s.; Mrs. Webster, 2s. 6d.; Mrs. Bramley, 2s. 6d.; Mr. A. B. Hanford, 10s.; Mr. Bassano, £1. Total £9 5s. 6d. The Treasurers would be glad to receive the full amount by the end of the year.

Church Room Programme.—The events of the past month have been varied, a whist drive, a musical evening, a missionary lantern talk. The numbers attending have justified the arrangement of them.

The items of the musical evening were provided by Miss Firr, Mrs. Greer, Mr. Murray Rumsey, Miss Betty Payne, Mr. J. Field, with Mrs. Dearden and Mr. Whittle at the piano. The items were interspersed with very hearty community singing. It is wise not to leave all our music to the wireless.

The Lantern Talk was on the Melanesian islands. Our's is a first rate lantern, and where that is the case there seems to be a use for the still picture. These views from islands in the South Pacific showed native clergy removed from head hunters by only a generation and pictures of Christian Altars artistically inlaid with shells in the way that their war vessels were embellished a few years back. Such views are an incentive to the builders of God's Kingdom.

Please remember the next Lantern Talk, by the Rector of Swithland on Thursday, December 9th, 7-30, in the Church Room. Subject: "How we built our mud church in Nigeria."

G.F.S.—We are glad to report that Miss Lucy Facer has accepted the Vicar's invitation to become President of our Branch.

Organ.—We regret to say that poor health is keeping Miss Callis from the organ for a few Sundays. We wish her a speedy recovery. Our thanks are due to Mr. P. Moore and Mr. S. Cotton for taking her place.
